

5 th September 2012 (Wednesday)

TEACHER'S DAY CELEBRATION 2012

A Report on the Teacher's Day Celebration

Teacher's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Smt. S. R. Patel Engineering on 5th September 2012. The whole event of that day was mainly planned and organized by the students of the college. The day is marked with paying respect to the Teacher community of the nation as this very day is the birthday of our second President Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, who himself was an academican of high repute. The college student participated in large number and took up the role of faculty. Total 91 students from various semester and branches efficiently performed the task of a teacher. Their performance were being evaluated by the teams of experts comprised

Student conducting Classes as Faculty

Heading For The Function

by college faculties. Depending on their performance under various criterion like communication/ presentation skill, subject knowledge, explanation ability, class control, confidence level etc., they were evaluate. Each and every participant had shown tremendous teaching ability which was praise worthy. In the last two hours of the day a function was organized by the students. During this function, The Student—Principals Miss Dhara Patel and Mr. Trushar Patel welcomed and greeted the college Principal Dr. Ami H. Shah with a bouquet as a mark of respect, all the faculty and staff members were also greeted with bouquet by the students. Later the Student Principals expressed their views about the college and their faculties. One of the student, Mr. Harsh Dave, presented a melodious song and later the students of 5th EC presented a motivational skit. Prof. Ramesh N. Mevada, a senior college faculty & HOD Mechanical Engr. Department had given a speech on the context of Morals of Teaching. In the last College-Principal, Dr. Ami H. Shah, gave a inspirational speech on the occasion and appreciated the efforts done by the students. Depending on the evaluation-reports of all the participant Student-Faculty, Semester wise awards were given to First, Second and Third position holders. Awards were handed over by the Principal of the Institute. She also encouraged the organizers, Student Principals, event-performers with a memento. Each Department Heads awarded the student participants of their respective branches with a memento. The whole function was a great success and was highly appreciated by both students and staff. At the end of the function a stunt-show was also arranged for recreation of all.

Glimpses of The Function Organized on Teacher's Day